slovakia and the Soviet Union during the first three quarters of 1948. It will be noted that the actual total values of listed goods are, in many cases, less than the given totals. This may be the result of the omission of some items from the original text. It is noteworthy that, while deliveries of grain and foodstuffs from the Soviet Union seemed to progress as laid out in the Czech-Soviet trade treaty for 1948, deliveries of some metals, including iron and copper, had all but reached their quotas by the end of September.
